As We Expected!

The friends of Mr. DURBORAW are beginning to be staggered by the exposure of his votes in the Legislature. They supposed before his re-nomination, that his vote on the "Extra Pay" were all right, especially as he had pledged himself to advocate low pay; and, then, his $200 donation coming in at the heels of the Session, was, in their judgment, calculated to seduce quite enough Democrats into his support to secure his re-election! But, they now suspect "there is something rotten in Denmark," and "smell a mouse." They begin to realize that his votes did not square with his pledges—that, instead of voting for and advocating the $500 salary, he voted for the SEVEN HUNDRED DOLLAR PAY, as his vote among the YEAS on the Conference Report showed! And what makes it all the worse for him in their opinion, is, that the Star and Sentinel will not undertake to open their mouths in regard to his course on the two most important tests: When he DODGED the vote on the final passage of the Bill, and when he VOTED FOR the Conference Report, both of which confined the Seven Hundred Dollar Salary to Members! The friends of DURBORAW begin to see and feel that the Star and Sentinel ARE CAUGHT—that they dare not deny his action on these points, and yet dare not justify what he did, because that would be acknowledging what we have charged him with, (and PROVED upon him,) A VIOLATION of solemn WRITTEN PLEDGES.

The dilemma is an unenviable one, but there is no getting out of it. Mr. DURBORAW DID vote for the $700, as we have charged upon him, and if silence ever "gave consent" to anything, the Star and the Sentinel acknowledge that he did his very disreputable thing. If not, why not deny his DODGING on the final passage vote, and his YEA for the Conference Report? THEY DARE NOT!—DO IT! We repeat, they DARE NOT!—They KNOW that page 512 of the House Journal records the one, and page 1095 the other.

We defy DURBORAW's organs to face the music on these points. Come, gentlemen, how is it about DURBORAW's DODGING—about his vote FOR the Conference Report? SAY, HOW IS IT?

DURBORAW's $200 BRIBE is receding upon him, as it should. He begins to discover that FOUR CENTS A HEAD will not buy the voters of Adams county, as he and the "Superior Councillors" seem to have supposed. Some of them, realizing the fact that the people see through the miserable trick, are making excuses for his act, and say Mr. DURBORAW so disposed of the $200 because they were not his. Whether there be force in this place, all we have to say is to it, that if the money was not his, let it wip off his to give away.

The Canadians talk of annexing Maine and the rest of the Atlantic territories to Canada. The process of annexation is not improbable, but when it occurs the Canadians may find the dividing line of the two countries removed altogether.

Old Documents.

The Adams Sentinel, of Oct. 4, 1858, charged CHARLES WILL with favoring $700 pay to Members, because, among other things, when the Conference Report for the Appropriation Bill, allowing that sum, came before the House, it passed "without opposition, the yeas and nays not being called." Further on in the same article, Mr. Will was charged with "permitting the Bill permanently increasing the salary to $700, to pass without opposition—making a difference to the Tax-payers of the State of over $20,000 a year." And the article concluded with this, now, very significant paragraph:

"Remember these facts, Taxpayers of Adams county, when you come to cast your ballots for a member of the Legislature. Recollect, too, that MR. DURBORAW, the opponent of Mr. WILL, publicly PLEDGED AGAINST EXTRA PAY of all kinds—pledged to you for a Repeal of the $700 Salary Law! Remember these facts, and then vote as your judgments and conscience approve."

The Star of Sept. 17, 1858, charged CHARLES WILL with favoring the $700 salary, declaring that he "sat quietly in his seat on the final passage of the bill," "increasing the compensation permanently to $700, without opposing it even by a call of the yeas and nays."

The Star, of Oct. 1, 1858, said:

"REMEMBER, Tax-Payers—that this $700 law, if not repealed, will increase the annual expenditures every year over $25,000, and in ten years amount to over $250,000—which might otherwise go to the extinguishment of the State Debt."

"REMEMBER—that SAMUEL DURBORAW is pledged to vote for its REPEAL, while CHARLES WILL sat quietly in his seat without opposing the bill."

This is the way the Know Nothing papers spoke last fall, and we shall give further similar extracts from them hereafter.

Now, voters of Adams, look at the course of Samuel DURBORAW in the Legislature, on this question, notwithstanding his solemn pledges, and the Star's and Sentinel's frequent re-iteration of them, during the canvass of 1858! Charles Will was faulted because the yeas and nays were not called! This was an enormous crime in Mr. Will in the eyes of the Star and Sentinel editors—a base betrayal of his verbal pledges! But what has Samuel DURBORAW done? After his published pledges for the repeal of the $700 salary and the restoration of that of $500, we find him, on the 4th of March, (page 512) DODGING the vote on the final passage of the Appropriation Bill, allowing the SEVEN HUNDRED DOLLAR PAY to continue, and on the 11th of April (page 1095) voting IN FAVOR of the Report of the Conference Committee, which also allowed the same pay of $700!

These are FACTS—stubborn and incontrollable—and we ask an honest public, in view of them, whether SAMUEL DURBORAW is worthy of being trusted with the responsible post again? You cannot but answer, NO!—NO!!—NO!!!

DURBORAW's PAY.

On referring to the House Journal, we find that Samuel DURBORAW received for his services in the Legislature last winter $700 as salary, $22 80 mileage, and $25 for stationery. Of this comfortable aggregate of $747 80, he set aside $200 as an Electioneering Fund; but still the sum remaining is very great compensation for his services, among which may be counted his remarkable feat in DODGING the vote on the final passage of the Appropriation Bill, allowing the $700 salary to continue, and his equally astonishing vote FOR the Conference Report, which also allowed the same high pay to the members! Very well done, Mr. DURBORAW. Wouldn't you like the chance to do so again?

A Chancery Record.

SAUER DURBORAW, or not, VOTE FOR the Conference Report on the Appropriation Bill, continuing the Seven Hundred Dollars Salary to Members! Will the Star answer? Will the Sentinel answer? If Mr. DURBORAW did not, as they try to make an unsuspecting public believe, violate his pledge, did he conform to it by voting for a Bill allowing the $700? As you, gentlemen, seem to be entirely deaf on these points, allow us to yell it in your ears: D-I-D E-E?

DURBORAW's oath in the Mountjoy Council of Know Nothingism, to proscribe Foreigners and Catholics, is a sore subject with the Star managers. They know there's no getting round the fact, and, therefore, must "grin and bear it." Their situation is an uncomfortable one, but they have only themselves to thank for it, because they were the originators of the infamous organization here, and at the time expected to get plenty of county offices through it—Mr. DURBORAW being among these aspirants for Know Nothing favors.

The Superior Councillors are in a sad plight. DURBORAW's vote, they find cannot be successfully defended, and Capt. Dixie cannot be successfully assaulted. In regard to the latter, they could only "intimate" that he did not vote the whole Democratic ticket last year, but his character as a man and a Democrat is too high to be injured by such a petty attack. Beside this, honest FRANK WILL has volunteered a card, certifying that he saw Capt. Dixie vote an open full Democratic ticket at the time alluded to. Thus all the calculations of the Star managers are, one after another, being "knocked into a cocked hat." Thus their visions of success, to be accomplished through hibernation and deception, are dissipating—flying far away!

Messrs. Managers, we might feel inclined to ask the people to sympathize with you, if we did not know that they feel it a duty to keep on giving you and your supple instruments terrible drubbings at the polls.

The Chamberburg Transcript, Moore's organ, in an article grossly misrepresenting Mr. DOUGLAS, the Democratic candidate for the Senate, says that Mr. MYERS, of this county, "was not pressed by his Conference." We are authorized to pronounce this assertion entirely false, as the Conference went there resolved to secure Mr. MYERS nomination, if possible, and voted for him on every ballot. But they were out-voted, and of course, like good Democrats, yielded to the majority. So much is due the Conference. The whole bill contains 12 Sections. On the final action upon the bill, a question was made by Mr. CRIMAN, of Limestone county, a Democrat, to postpone the further consideration of it. The Yeas and Nays were required by Messrs. GRIMAN, REED, McCLEARY, and FARNSTOCK, are very actively canvassing for votes among Democrats. The friends of the good old cause need only bear in mind that, not one of these gentlemen would, under any circumstances, vote for a Democrat, because all of them are violent Know Nothing and Black Republican politicians, who, in their hearts, regard the Democratic party with hatred. Democrats will hardly be peremptory to vote for these leading Dark Luminaries simply because they may condescend to ask them for their votes.

The Canadians talk of annexing Maine and the rest of the Atlantic territories to Canada. The process of annexation is not improbable, but when it occurs the Canadians may find the dividing line of the two countries removed altogether.

Five "Dollars a Day and Roast Beef!"

Hand Over the $100!

The Star managers, or "Superior Councillors," are reduced to the despoil expedient of resorting to high-sounding, windy assertions, to relieve Mr. DURBORAW from the dilemma he has placed himself in by a violation in the Legislature of the pledges which he made to the people of the county before last fall's election. THE FACTS are all against him, and the managers begin to see, that, twist and distort as they may, they cannot wipe out the least significant of them. Mr. DURBORAW declared, in his reply to the Rosser Letter, that if elected he would vote for "the repeal" of the $700 salary, and use his influence to have the old compensation of $500 restored.

This "500 compensation," mark it, reader, had reference to $500 per session. Now, let us examine the Journal of the House to see how he comes out on this point. On page 455, it is recorded that he VOTED FOR the McClure amendment, fixing the pay of Members at $500 PER DAY! The last session continued 105 days, and had the pay been per diem, the days would have numbered 135 or 140. He was pledged to vote for a definite sum, and here we find him sustaining a measure which would have made it in the highest degree indefinite—which would have run far above the $500, as was demonstrated by more than a dozen of the members, in earnest speeches, on the floor of the House, at the time the vote was taken. Did DURBORAW in this instance adhere to his "obligations?"

Members.
The Freight Depot of the Gettysburg Railroad at this place was entered on Saturday night a week by some thieving scoundrels and robbed of about $65, (as near as can be ascertained,) which had been left in the office, and a quantity of melons. The scamps or scamps, whoever they are, are still at large.

Mailroad Survey.

Some time ago a survey was made of a Rail-road route from New Oxford to Berlin, and we learn that week before last the line between the latter place and York was run by J. S. Gitt, Esq., Civil Engineer. The survey was commenced on Monday and finished on Saturday. We are not as yet informed of the practicability of the route. It is in contemplation to connect the Gettysburg Railroad at New Oxford with the Gettysburg and Wrightsville road at York.

Brain Storm.

This region was visited by continuous rain on Friday last, and on Saturday it poured down with little cessation, accompanied by a high wind. Much damage has doubtless resulted in various quarters. Rock and Marsh Creeks have not been so high for 20 years.

The Chambersburg and Emmitsburg Stages were compelled to return on Saturday afternoon, having been unable to get to the bridges across Marsh creek. Large quantities of corn on the shock have been swept from the fields along Marsh and Conowago creeks. Mr. JAMES WHITRE lost 1000 bushels. Fencing suffered terribly. Two bridges on the Hanover Railroad, near the Junction, were rendered impassable for anything heavier than a hand car.

We are indebted to T. E. Cook & Sons, of Pleasant Ridge Nurseries, near Banderville, for a basket of very fine Pears, of the Seckel variety, for which they have our acknowledgments. These gentlemen are acquiring a high reputation for the superior quality and great variety of the fruits grown by them, and the specimen brought us certainly reflects no discredit upon them.

Mr. DANIEL PLANK, of this place, will act as Agent for the sale of Real Estate in this county, and has opened an office for this purpose. His card will explain itself. Mr. Plank understands his business and will make a reliable agent.

Mr. DANIEL SNYDER, of the firm of Snyder & Benner, in this place, bandied us the other day a Hen's Egg measuring 7½ by 4½ inches in circumference. This is real "mammouth" size, rarely equalled.

The Good Will and Fixtures of a Wholesale and Retail Liquor Store is offered for sale in another column. For particulars call at this office.

The Board of Trustees of Penn. College have determined to build a new and commodious dwelling on the College Campus, to be occupied by the President of the College.

In pursuance of an order from the Court of Common Pleas the property known as the Public Common, in Hanover, will be sold at auction on Saturday, the 15th of October.

The Farmer and Gardener.—This is the title of a very handsomely printed monthly periodical, devoted to the interests of agriculturists and horticulturists, published in Philadelphia, and edited by A. M. SPANGLER, Esq., a gentleman well known for the interest he has always taken in affairs connected with the tilling of the soil. It is filled with useful information, which cannot but prove of great advantage to the public, and is handsomely embellished with illustrations of farm implements, fruits, domestic animals, &c. —The subscription price per annum is one dollar.

It is said that Gen. Scott will go out in the steamer for the Pacific to-morrow, in regard to the San Juan difficulty.

A fire destroying half a million of property occurred at Chicago on Thursday.

After me, the Deluge.

The McClure meeting held in this place, on Wednesday evening last, in the very warm weather, McClure resided, was the smallest, dullest and flattest ever held by any party in this place. McClure himself in whom the sense of shame is almost extinct was ashamed of the meeting. Though called as a town meeting so sparse are the friends of McClure in this place that a townsmen could not be found to be at the meeting. After something in the form of an organization was made through with T. E. Cochran, candidate for Auditor General, was introduced. He at once mounted upon the shoulders of the nigger and read the poor darker almost to death.

The Tariff was his other hobby, but the jude has been hackneyed so much that she refused to carry him and hung him up in the first fence-corner. It was amusing to witness the bungling effort he made at a speech. When mounted on the shoulders of the nigger, the North was in a most thriving and flourishing condition—its work-shops were glowing with industry, and its hills and valleys were teeming with the fruits of free labor, while the South was a blighted picture of ruin and desolation.

But a change came o'er the spirit of his dreams. He mounted the Tariff hobby and then the North was the blighted picture of ruin and desolation! Its work-shops were closed—its farmers could get no market for their produce, and nothing was to be seen but Democratic Constables and Democratic Sheriffs. After stammering through his twaddle of words he quietly retired and the sparse crowd manifested its appreciation of his speech by its expressive silence. It is an absolute shame in McClure to inveigle strangers into this country, to speak for him and have their feelings hurt by such cold reception as he was extended to Cochran and Casey. "After me, the Deluge."

The next item on the programme for the evening was a speech by Geo. Eyster, Esq., announced "POSITIVELY" to come off—but it didn't. Col. McClure's "little crack" had no idea to be caught speaking from the same platform with the man he pronounced the most corrupt in the Pennsylvania Legislature. Mr. Eyster displayed his good sense that time.

The bold Col. was next trotted out. He made a feeble attempt to mount on the shoulders of the nigger but only got as far up as the power of the spinal column would allow him to stand. The Tariff was too much for him, it was a subject beyond his ability, but the "Useful Law," "Pork P." and the "Sale of the Public Works" he knew all about them and more than he chose to tell.

The meeting passed off without a cheer or a particle of enthusiasm. The unapreciating group moved off, when McClure dried up, with an ominous silence that said as plain words could speak it—"After me, the Deluge!"

Wilmington Election.

The municipal election in the City of Wilmington, came off on Tuesday last, and resulted in the complete triumph of the Democratic candidates. For Mayor, Thomas Young, (Dem.) had 183 majority; Alderman, John Wright, (Dem.) 54 majority; Assessor, John Malick, (Dem.) 50 majority. A very large vote was polled and there was much excitement. Last fall the Opposition carried the City with the exception of the Mayor, who was elected by a very meagre majority, not over a dozen votes.

From the Valley Spirit.
McClure's Veracity.

We understand that McClure stated in a speech of which he attempted to deliver himself, at St. Thomas, on Friday night, that he had in his possession a paper from Mr. Hill, one of our Attorneys, in which we admit that we have no evidence to sustain us in the prosecution commenced against us by Mr. McClure. For ourselves we pronounce this one of McClure's patent lies, which he has an exclusive right to read in this Senatorial district, and for Mr. Hill we are authorized to say it is "AN OUTRAGEOUS FALSIFICATION." There has not a single circumstance taken place between McClure and any of our Attorneys, that would afford even a pretext for the fabrication of such a story. It is a pure unadulterated falsehood, and McClure knew it to be such when he gave it utterance. He will no doubt tell the same story with his variations, in other places, as it is a part of his stock trade, and we are sure he will always be present to demand a sight of the paper. If he does tell it is a forgery. Poor fellow! he must feel that he is sinking fast or he would not grasp at such petty lies to keep him in office.

Special Notices.

AN OLD BABY RESTORED TO COMPARATIVE YOUTH.—Dr. D. C. Jackson, of York, says: "I am very old, and for years have been very miserable—my wife has been a good nurse, but my graver trouble has been with my heart. I have had three little bottles of medicine, and a good deal of trouble, but I am now as well as I was thirty years younger; for I can digest my food now, and am free from pain. My wife has been a good nurse, and my grandsons, when we saw the good effects of the Bitter, advised me to send this certificate. Yours, &c."—H. H. Bitter, York.

Ask for Hanover's German Bitter. Take nothing else, for it is a good medicine. Dr. Jackson's is the best.

As We Expected!

The friends of Mr. DURBORAW are beginning to be staggered by the exposure of his votes in the Legislature. They supposed before his re-nomination, that his votes on the "Extra Pay" were all right, especially as he had pledged himself to advocate low pay; and, then, his $200 donation coming in at the heels of the Session, was, in their judgment, calculated to seduce quite enough Democrat into his support to secure his re-election! But, they now suspect "there is something rotten in Denmark," and "smell a mace." They begin to realize that his votes did not square with his pledges—that, instead of voting for and advocating the $500 salary, he voted for the SEVEN HUNDRED DOLLAR PAY, as his vote among the YEAS on the Conference Report shows! And what makes it all the worse for him in their opinion, is that the Star and Sentinel will not undertake to open their mouths in regard to his course on the two most important tests, viz.: When he DODGED the vote on the final passage of the Bill, and when he VOTED FOR the Conference Report, both of which continued the Seven Hundred Dollar Salary to Members? The friends of DURBORAW begin to see and feel that the Star and Sentinel ARE CAUGHT—that they dare not deny his action on these points, and yet dare not justify what he did, because that would be acknowledging what we have charged him with, (and PROVED upon him,) a VIOLATION of solemn WRITTEN PLEDGES.

The dilemma is an unenviable one, but there is no getting out of it. Mr. DURBORAW DID vote for the $700, as we have charged upon him, and if silence ever "gave consent" to anything, the Star and the Sentinel acknowledge that he did that very disreputable thing. If not, why not deny his DODGING on the final passage, and his YEAS for the Conference Report? THEY DARE NOT DO IT! We repeat, they DARE NOT!—They KNOW that page 512 of the House Journal records the one, and page 1095 the other.

We defy DURBORAW's organs to face the music on these points. Come, gentlemen, how is it about DURBORAW's DODGING—about his vote FOR the Conference Report? SAY, HOW IS IT?

DURBORAW's $200 BRIBE is recoiling upon him, as it should. He begins to discover that FOUR CENTS A HEAD will not buy the voters of Adams county, as he and the "Superior Councillors" seem to have supposed. Some of them, realizing the fact that the people are through the miserable trick, are making exones for the act, and say Mr. DURBORAW so disposed of the $200 because they were not his. Whether there be force or not in this plea, all we have to say to it is, that if the money was not his to keep it, was not his to give away.

The Canadians talk of annexing Maine to that country, as the natural Atlantic terminus for Canada. The process of annexation is not improbable, but when it occurs the Canadians may find the dividing line of the two countries removed altogether.

We understand, from various sources, that the Opposition candidates, especially Messrs. DURBORAW, RESSER, McCLEAN, and FARNESTOCK, are very actively canvassing for votes among Democrats. The friends of the GOOD OLD CAUSE need only bear in mind that all of them are violent Know Nothing and Black Republican politicians, who, in their hearts, regard the Democratic party with hatred. Democrats will hardly be won to vote for these leading Dark Lantterns simply because they may coquettishly ask them for their votes.

Democrats will hardly be won to vote for these leading Dark Lantterns simply because they may coquettishly ask them for their votes.

We

The Freight Depot of the Gettysburg Railroad at this place was entered on Saturday night a week by some thieving scoundrels and robbed of about $65, (as near as can be ascertained,) which had been left in the office, and a quantity of melons. The scamp, or scamps, who ever they are, are still at large.

Railroad Survey.

Some time ago a survey was made of a Railroad route from New Oxford to Berlin, and we learn that week before last the line between the latter place and York was run by J. S. Gott, Esq., Civil Engineer. The survey was commenced on Monday and finished on Saturday. We are not as yet informed of the practicability of the route. It is in contemplation to connect the Gettysburg Railroad at New Oxford with the Gettysburg and Wrights' road at York.

Hailstorm.

This region was visited by continuous rain on Friday last, and on Saturday it poured down with little cessation, accompanied by a high wind. Much damage has doubtless resulted in various quarters. Rock and Marsh Creek have not been so high for 20 years.

The Chambering and Emmitsburg Stages were compelled to return on Saturday afternoon, having been unable to get to the bridges across Marsh creek. Large quantities of corn on the stalk have been swept from the fields along Marsh and Conewago creeks. Mr. James White loses 1000 bushels. Fencing suffered terribly. Two bridges on the Hanover Railroad, near the Junction, were rendered impassable for anything heavier than a car.

We are indebted to T. Cook & Sons, of Pleasant Ridge Nurseries, near Bendersville, for a basket of very fine Pears, of the Seckel variety, for which they have our acknowledgments. These gentlemen are acquiring a high reputation for the superior quality and great variety of the fruits grown by them, and the specimen brought us certainly reflects no discredit upon the.

Mr. DANIEL PEAKS of this place will act as Agent for the sale of Real Estate in this county, and has opened an office for this purpose. His card will explain itself. Mr. Peaks understands his business and will make a reliable agent.

Mr. DANIEL SNIDER, of the firm of Snyder & Bonner, in this place, handled, the other day a Hen's Egg measuring 7½ by 2½ inches in circumference. This is real "mammoth" size, surely equalled.

The Board of Trustees of Penn. College have determined to build a new and commodious dwelling on the College Campus, to be occupied by the President of the College.

In pursuance of an order from the Court of Common Pleas the property known as the Public Common, in Hanover, will be sold at auction on Saturday, the 15th of October.

The Farmer and Gardener—This is the title of a very handsomely printed monthly periodical, devoted to the interests of agriculturalists and Horticulturists, published in Philadelphia, and edited by A. M. STANGER, Esq., a gentleman well known for the interest he has always taken in affairs connected with the tillage of the soil. It is filled with useful information, which is not but prove of great advantage to the public, and is handsomely embellished with illustrations of farm implements, fruits, domestic animals, &c. The subscription price per annum is one dollar.

It is said that two boats will go out in the steamer for the Pacific to-morrow, in regard to the San Joaquin flotilla.

After me, the Deluge.

The McClure meeting held in this place, on Wednesday evening, last, in the very wretched McClure house, was the smallest, dullest and flattest ever held by any party in this place. McClure himself, in whom the sense of shame is almost extinct, was ashamed of the meeting. Though called as a town meeting so sparse are the friends of McClure in this place that a town meeting could not be found to preside at it, and in him from the country had to be taken. After something in the form of an organization was gone through with, Prof. E. Cochran, candidate for Auditor General, was introduced. He at once mounted upon the shoulders of the nigger and rode the poor darke almost to death. The Tariff was his other hobby, but the jude has been knocked so much that she refused to carry him and flung him off in the first fence corner. It was amusing to witness the bungling effort he made at a speech. When mounted on the shoulders of the nigger, the North was in a most thriving and flourishing condition—its work-shops were glowing with industry, and its hills and valleys were teeming with the fruits of free labor, while the South was a blighted picture of ruin and desolation.

But a change o'er the spirit of his dreams. He mounted the full horse and then the North was the blighted picture of ruin and desolation! Its work-shops were closed—its farmers could get no market for their produce, and nothing was to be seen but Democratic Ceasars and Democratic Sheriffs. After stammering through his twaddle of words he quietly retired and the sparse crowd manifested its appreciation of his speech by its expressive silence. It is an absolute shame in McClure to inveigle strangers into this county, to speak for him, and have their feelings hurt by such cold receptions as were extended to Cochran and Casey. "After me, the Deluge."

The next item on the programme for the evening was a speech by Geo. Eyster, Esq., announced "positively" to come off—but it didn't. Col. McClure's "little cracker" had no idea to be caught speaking from the same platform with whom he pronounced the most corrupt in the Pennsylvania Legislature. Mr. Eyster displayed his good sense that time.

The bold Col. was next trotted out. He made a feeble attempt to mount on the shoulders of the nigger but only got far up as the posterior termination of the spinal column and there stuck. The Tariff was too much for him, it was a subject beyond his calibre, but the "Usury Bank," "Extra Pay," and the "Sale of the Public Works," he knew all about them and more than he chose to tell. The meeting passed off without a cheer or a particle of enthusiasm. The unappraising group moved off, when McClure dried up, with an ominous silence that said as plain as words could speak it—"After me, the Deluge."

Wilmington Election.

The municipal election in the City of Wilmington, came off on Tuesday last, and resulted in the complete triumph of the Democratic candidates. For Mayor, Thomas Young, (Dem.) had 183 majority; Alderman, John Wright, (Dem.) 54 majority; Assessor, John McNeal, (Dem.) 50 majority. A very large vote was polled and there was much excitement. Last fall the Opposition carried the City with the exception of the Mayor, who was elected by a very meagre majority, not even a dozen votes.

From the Valley Spirit

McClure's Veracity.

We understand that McClure stated in a speech of which he attempted to deliver himself, at St. Thomas, on Friday night, that he had one of his possession paper from Mr. Hill, one of our Attorneys, in which we admit that we have no evidence to sustain us in the prosecution commenced against us by Mr. McClure. For ourselves we pronounced this one of McClure's patent lies, which he has an exclusive right to vent in this Senatorial District, and for Mr. Hill we are authorized to say it is "AN OUTRAGEON'S LIE." There has not a single circumstance taken place between McClure and any of our Attorneys, that would afford even a pretext for the fabrication of such a story. It is a pure unadulterated falsehood, and Mr. McClure knew it to be such when he gave it utterance. He will not be able to tell the same story with the variations, in other places as it is part of his stock in trade, and we ask any Person who may be present to demand a sight of the paper. If he produces one it is a forgery. Poor fellow! he must feel that he is sinking fast or he would not grasp it so tightly he has to keep him about.
